

Economy of Pakistan

FEATURES

Chain of economic events need to be recorded irrespective of the change in governments. The data published in the Economic Survey of Pakistan, 2004-05, State Bank of Pakistan Report 2004-05, World Development Report, 2006 and relevant and pertinent articles from Newspapers/Professional Journals have been incorporated in the above edition.

Contents

Part -I: Economic Framework

Pakistan in the World Economy and Performance during 2004-05; Macroeconomic Framework and Performance; Agriculture Sector; Manufacturing Sector; Balance of Payments; Financial Sector; Resource Mobilization (Domestic & Foreign) and Infrastructural Service I (Health & Education) and II (Transportation, Communications & Energy) Part - II:

Economic Planning and Policies

Macroeconomic Planning: Pakistan's Planning Experience; Agriculture Sector Policies; Industrial and Infrastructural

Sector Policies; Commercial Policies; Monetary Policies; Fiscal Policy: Conceptual Aspects; Fiscal Policy in Pakistan; Manpower Planning; Labour Policies, Islamic Financial System.

Part - III: Economic Manifesto for Pakistan

Suggested Economic Strategy for the 21st Century and Pakistan in the Third Millennium.

Readership

The readership includes citizens of Pakistan, students, teachers, business executives, traders, professionals, e.g. Chartered Accountants, Cost and Management Accountants, Bankers, Investors, Bureaucrats, Policy Makers, Parliamentarians and all those interested in the Economy of Pakistan and general public at large. Students of B.Com., BBA, M.Com., MBA, MBE, MBIT, MPA, BBA (Hons.)/MBA (Banking & Finance) and (Insurance & Risk Management) will considerably benefit from it.

For Procurement, contact: Oxford University Press, Plot No. 38, Sector 15, Korangi Industrial Area, Karachi. Tel: 111-693-673.